HISTORY AND TRADITIONS

YOSEF

Yosef is mountain talk for "yourself," with the idea being that if you are an Appalachian alumnus, fan or friend and have a heart filled with black and gold, you are Yosef.

In preparing the layout for the 1942 edition of Appalachian's annual yearbook, The Rhododendron, editor James Storie and associate editor Elizabeth South (who later married in June 1942) were talking with freshman Lloyd S. Isaacs and Bill Mitchell of Observer Publishing about being one picture short of a perfectly balanced annual.

The result of their chatter was the creation of a character named Dan'l Boone Yoseff from Appalachian. He was presented as a member of the 1941-42 freshman class.

Each member of the foursome deflected credit for the creation of Yosef. Although called the Mountaineers, Appalachian had no mascot prior to Yosef. There were no plans in 1942 for Yosef to continue and evolve into what he is today.

His initial publication was such a hit that students went so far as to want to order picture packages of Yosef instead of pictures of themselves. Undoubtedly, the caricature, the name and the idea appealed to Appalachian students.

There is a controversy as to where the original image of Yosef came from, and who was responsible for the picture. Accounts mention having a bookstore staff member generate a sketch, but an artist in Charlotte has also been credited with the creation of the mountain man.

The next mention of the fictional character came during the years of 1946-49 when Yoseff served as a guest editorial writer in the student newspaper (The Appalachian). He wrote using mountain colloquialism with a penchant for misspelled words.

Yoseff dropped the second

"f" and became Yosef in January of 1947. On Nov. 22, 1947, the University sponsored a Mr. and Mrs. Yosef contest. Skills needed for the titles included hog and chicken calling.

The first mention of Yosef as the mascot of the Mountaineers is a picture in the March 12, 1948 edition of The Appalachian. The photo tabbed him as a perennial freshman.

In 1949, John Geffrich, a 48-year-old World War II veteran, was one of the first Yosef mascots. Geffrich helped establish a lineage of male undergraduates portraying a bearded man with coveralls, a pipe and a straw hat. The addition of a musket and a black-and-gold pick-up truck called the "Yosef Mobile" came along through the generations of Yosef.

In the early 1980s opinions began to sound that Yosef was too ugly and that his appearance needed to be altered. The need for a more dignified mascot, away from the slouchy, flea-bitten character, was evident.

Prior to the 1983-84 academic year, a committee comprised of university students, staff and faculty members modernized Yosef's look through a cartoon-type head and body. Responsible for providing school spirit, Yosef is a member of the cheerleading squad. He was an integral part of Appalachian's 1986 and 1989 UCA Division I National Championship cheerleading squads. Yosef goes to mascot instructional camp with the cheerleaders each summer.

Yosef is presently responsible for leading the Mountaineers onto the field and is always nearby when the musket is fired after ASU touchdowns. Over the years, he has rappelled off Owens Field House, ridden a motorcycle around the Kidd Brewer Stadium track, swung from a rope through the rafters of Varsity Gym, danced with the ASU Dance Team at basketball games and, at one time, shot the pesky VMI Kangaroo.

YOSEF THROUGH THE YEARS

In 1942, The Rhododendron staff created Dan'l Boone Yoseff from Appalachian, ASU's first mascot.

In 1949, John Geffrich, a 48-year-old WWII vet, became the first ASU student to portay Yosef.

During the 1983-84 academic year, a committee comprised of ASU students, faculty and staff developed the first costumed Yosef.

In 2001, "Touchdown Yosef" became a permanent part of the ASU landscape when the statue donated by Irwin and Carol Belk was erected at the corner of Stadium Drive and Rivers Street in the heart of campus.

Today, Yosef can be found firing his musket in celebration of ASU touchdowns both at Kidd Brewer Stadium and on the road.

THE OLD MOUNTAIN JUG

Rivalries are what make college football the intense event that it is and Appalachian participates in one of the oldest and most-heated rivalries in the country.

Appalachian State and Western Carolina have clashed on the gridiron 72 times. Leading the all-time series by a margin of 53-18-1, Appalachian has dominated the rivalry for most of its duration, but in 1978 the clash between the Mountain neighbors gained an added dimension with the development of the Old Mountain Jug.

Prior to the 1978 matchup, dialogue between Yosef Club Director Wayne Clawson and Cat Club Director Tom Bommer developed with hopes to heighten the rivalry between the foes. Clawson and Bommer promoted the jug idea to alumni, while Appalachian sports information Director Rick Layton and Western Carolina SID Steve White were charged with drumming up media exposure for it.

Appalachian bookstore manager Roby Triplett donated the Jug, which weighs approximately 25 pounds. Capped with a traditional cork, it is a replica of one used to transport homemade corn whiskey. His wife, the late Dee Triplett, a science and biology teacher at Hardin Park Elementary School in Boone, painted the Jug gold with the purple Catamount on one side and the black Mountaineer on the other side. Excluding minor touchups, the Jug and its logos have not been altered since their creation.

The winner of the annual fray retains possession of the Jug until the next year's match-up.

After winning the first three battles for the Jug, Appalachian gave up four in-a-row to Western Carolina from 1981-84. Head coach Sparky Woods helped ASU return the jug to Boone for an impressive string of 13-consecutive wins from 1985-97 that carried into the tenure of present ASU head coach, Jerry Moore.

Western Carolina put a halt to the Mountaineer win streak by handing the Apps a 23-6 setback in 1998. Appalachian returned the Jug to Boone in 1999 and successfully defended for five-straight years before the Catamounts took back the Jug for just the second time in two decades with a 30-27 triumph over the Apps in 2004.

Western's possession of the Jug was short-lived, however, as Appalachian has defeated WCU each of the past three seasons and posted the two biggest wins since the inception of the Jug in the process — a 35-7 rout in 2005 and a 79-35 shellacking last season. Sandwiched between the two wins in Boone was a 31-9 thumping in Cullowhee in 2006.

RETIRED NUMBERS

NO. 23 JOHN SETTLE

On Nov. 22, 1986, before his last regular-season game at Kidd Brewer Stadium, the legendary John Settle became the first ASU football player to have his number (23) retired.

Settle's career established him as Appalachian's all-time leader in almost every rushing category. Settle displayed courage every step of the way. His pride and respect for the game set the standard of excellence by which all Mountaineer athletes, past, present and future, strive to perpetuate.

From 1983 through 1986, Settle graced the Appalachian backfield with steadfast courage and determination. He finished his career as the school's all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards and 43 touchdowns. He presently holds 24 Appalachian records. At the time of his departure from Boone, he was the third-ranked rusher in NCAA Division I-AA football history.

Settle, a criminal justice major while at Appalachian, was named the Southern Conference Player and Male Athlete of the Year as a senior, after rushing for 1,661 yards and 20 touchdowns. One of the highlights of his season was his five-touchdown day in the Homecoming victory over Davidson on Nov. 4, 1986.

The two-time All-American had a knack for rising to the occasion in the most important games. In Appalachian's first NCAA I-AA Playoff game in school history, on Nov. 29, 1986, Settle dazzled the crowd with 236 yards on 37 carries and a touchdown in the 28-26 defeat to Nicholls State.

His excellence continued at the professional level with the Atlanta Falcons. In 1988, Settle became the first rookie free agent in NFL history to gain over 1,000 yards in a season. During that year, he gained 1,594 total yards (1,024 rushing and 570 receiving) and was voted to the Pro Bowl, the all-star game of the NFL, in Honolulu, Hawaii. His fabled playing days came to a close with the Washington Redskins. He was rewarded for his hard work with a 1991 Super Bowl championship ring with the Redskins.

Settle's career continued to evolve as his playing days paved the way for a future in coaching which began in Boone, in 1994. Again a Mountaineer, Settle instantly found his niche as an assistant coach. From 1995-1998, Settle served as an offensive assistant for the Cleveland Browns and later the Baltimore Ravens. His duties in the NFL involved coordinating the game plan and working with the running backs, special teams, and strength and conditioning. His experienced football mind was also used in the evaluation of personnel. In 1998, Settle returned to the college game by taking a job at Fresno State where he served as the Bulldogs' running backs coach for nine seasons until moving into the same position at the University of Wisconsin prior to the 2006 season.

Of his time in Boone, Settle says: "Appalachian helped lay the foundation for who and what I am today. As time moves on, I appreciate the days I spent in Boone more and more. The people, the fans, the University and the family environment that surrounds the community are something that I have not encountered since my days in Boone. I hope that someday I will have the opportunity to give back to a place that has given so much to me."

Settle enjoyed a six-year NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons and Washington Redskins.

Appalachian retired John Settle's No. 23 on Nov. 22, 1986.

NO. 32 DEXTER COAKLEY

Perhaps the most decorated player in the illustrious history of Appalachian State University football, Appalachian retired Dexter Coakley's No. 32 on April 19, 2005.

From 1993-96, Coakley set or tied six school records, earned a slew of personal accolades and helped lead Appalachian to 32 victories and two NCAA I-AA playoff appearances.

The Mt. Pleasant, S.C. native made an immediate impact on the ASU squad, as he led the Apps with 141 total tackles as a freshman in 1993, en route to Southern Conference Freshman of the Year honors.

Things only got better for the hard-hitting linebacker, both individually and for the Mountaineers. In 1994, he racked up 155 tackles to earn the first of three SoCon Defensive Player of the Year awards. Perhaps more importantly, he helped lead ASU back to the I-AA playoffs after a one-year hiatus and a first-round, overtime victory over No. 7 New Hampshire before falling at second-ranked Boise State in the national quarterfinals.

As a junior, Coakley led his squad to a perfect 11-0 regular season, becoming just the ninth team in 30 years to claim the SoCon crown with an undefeated, untied league record (8-0). For the second-straight season, Coakley hauled in SoCon Defensive Player of the Year and first-team All-America accolades after racking up 150 tackles. He also earned the inaugural Buck Buchanan Award, given to the top defensive player in I-AA.

Coakley capped his second-to-none collegiate career in 1996 by leading Appalachian in tackles for the third time with 166. He earned SoCon Defensive Player of the Year and first-team All-America honors for the third time, while also claiming his second-straight Buck Buchanan Award. He remains the only two-time winner of I-AA football's most prestigious defensive honor and the only Mountaineer to garner All-America status for three years.

No. 32 remains ASU's all-time career leader in total tackles (616), solo tackles (350), assisted tackles (266), double-figure tackle games (38) and 20-tackle games (7). He is tied for the school mark with two-consecutive 20-tackle games, a feat he achieved twice, versus Georgia Southern and Marshall in 1995 and against East Tennessee State and Furman in '96.

Following the end of his career in the High Country, Coakley became the second-highest drafted player in Appalachian history when the Dallas Cowboys selected him in the third round (65th overall pick) of the 1997 NFL Draft.

His impact in the NFL was as immediate as his impact at ASU, as he started all 16 games for the Cowboys as a rookie in '97. In 127 games as a pro, he has registered 687 tackles, 10 interceptions, seven sacks and four forced fumbles and has missed only one game in eight seasons due to injury. He earned Pro Bowl appearances in 1999, 2001 and '03.

After spending the first eight years of his professional career in Dallas, Coakley spent the 2005 and '06 seasons with the St. Louis Rams. He is currently a free agent.

Active in the community, Coakley received the Cowboys Unsung Hero Award in 2002, as selected by his teammates and fans. He has been involved with many charitable programs during his professional career, including the Salvation Army, the Children's Cancer Fund Fashion Show, Dallas Cowboys Courage House, and Let Us Play! Sports Camp for Girls.

Coakley and his wife, Nicole, have a daughter, Trinity, and a son, Zahn.

Appalachian retired Dexter Coakley's No. 32 on April 19, 2005.

Coakley appeared in three Pro Bowls as a member of the Dallas Cowboys.

NO. 38 DINO HACKETT

Appalachian State University football retired its third jersey, Dino Hackett's No. 38, during homecoming festivities on Oct. 29, 2005.

"I've had a lot of honors in the NFL and college, and I can honestly say having my number retired at Appalachian is the greatest honor I've ever received," Hackett said.

A member of Appalachian's 75th Anniversary Team, Hackett starred as a linebacker at ASU from 1982-85. He holds eight school records, including most solo (106), assisted (94) and total tackles (200) in a season, which he accomplished in 1985 en route to first-team All-America accolades. His 27 total tackles against East Tennessee State on Nov. 23, 1985 are still tops in Appalachian's single-game annals, as are his 18 solo stops versus Furman on Oct. 26, 1985. In addition to the All-America recognition as a senior, Hackett was also an all-Southern Conference honoree in both 1984 and '85.

Following his standout collegiate career, Hackett was selected in the second round (35th overall) of the 1986 National Football League Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs, which remains the highest that a Mountaineer has ever been drafted by an NFL team. He went on to enjoy a successful seven-year professional career, spending six seasons with the Chiefs and one with the Seattle Seahawks. One of only seven Chiefs to ever start all 16 games as a rookie, Hackett's 140 tackles in 1986 are the second-most by a rookie in team history. He went on to earn a spot in the Pro Bowl following the 1988 season, in which he was part of the K.C.'s top-rated pass defense. His 16 tackles versus the Seahawks on Sept. 20, 1987 is still a Kansas City record.

Since retiring from the NFL following the 1993 season, Hackett has returned to the Triad where he and his brother, Joey, own and operate Hackett Properties, a real estate development company. A graduate of Southern Guilford H.S. in Greensboro, Appalachian retired Dino Hackett's No. 38 on Oct. 29, 2005.

Hackett resides in Pleasant Garden, N.C. with his wife, Cindy, daughter, Dustin Marie, and son, Jax. The family raises quarterhorses on their farm.

"Honoring Dino was a highlight of my first year at Appalachian. To me, personally, Dino Hackett is what Mountaineer football is all about," Appalachian athletics director Charlie Cobb said. "Along with being one of the best football players in ASU history, Dino is someone who embodies the spirit of Appalachian and is a terrific ambassador for both the University and the athletics department. He is truly deserving of the honor."

Dino Hackett played seven seasons in the NFL, six with the Kansas City Chiefs, and earned a Pro Bowl selection in 1988.

NO. 71 LARRY HAND

Appalachian State University retired the No. 71 worn by American and NFL standout Larry Hand as part of homecoming festivities on Sept. 30, 2006.

Hand was a two-time all-American and three-time all-Carolinas Conference honoree as a tackle at Appalachian from 1960-64. Hand was far from a top prospect coming out of Butler H.S. in Butler, N.J. In fact, he worked as a mason for two years before Appalachian head coach Jim Duncan brought him to Boone, despite the fact that the 6-4, 225-pounder only played junior varsity high school football. However, after missing his freshman season due to injury, Hand made an immediate impact on the Mountaineers and put together the first of three-straight all-conference campaigns in 1962.

In '63, he garnered all-America accolades for the first time, earning second-team NAIA honors. His breakout performance came in a 20-6 win over Lenoir-Rhyne, in which he led a Mountaineer defense that forced five fumbles and held the Bears to minus-22 yards rushing.

Following Appalachian's first victory over LRC in nine years, Duncan called Hand "the best pro line prospect to come out of the Carolinas Conference." Professional teams agreed, as Hand was drafted as a future selection by both the Detroit Lions (10th round — NFL) and New York Jets (21st round — AFL) prior to his senior season in 1964 (future selections could be used on players that had a year of college eligibility remaining but their class had graduated).

In '64, Hand showed why the professional teams jumped at the chance to draft him in the offseason, as he put together a monster season that culminated in first-team NAIA all-America plaudits and second-team recognition by the Associated Press. He was also awarded the 1964 Kirkland Blocking Award, established in 1957 by Catawba College in memory of Gordon A. Kirkland.

He signed with the Lions in 1965 and went on to play 13 seasons in Detroit. His 13 years of service are tied for the third-most in Lions history and his 164 games played are tied for the 11th-highest total in franchise history.

In his 13 professional seasons, Hand registered five interceptions as a defensive lineman, returning three for touchdowns. He was the Lions' defensive MVP in 1972 and is still tied for second in Lions history with two INT returns for touchdowns in 1967. Defensive statistics such as tackles, tackles for loss and sacks were not kept by the Lions until 1973 (and didn't become an official NFL statistic in 1983). However, it is known that he led Detroit in sacks in two of the five seasons that he played when those records were kept, with 11 in 1973 and seven in 1975 (both 14-game seasons).

Hand is currently employed by Wachovia Securities and resides in the Winston-Salem area with his wife, Darlene.

Current Appalachian offensive lineman Pat Mills will be able to continue wearing No. 71 for the remainder of his ASU career.

Appalachian retired Larry Hand's No. 71 on Sept. 30, 2006.

APPALACHIAN HEROES

ROB BEST, SHAWN ELLIOTT AND STACY SEARELS

As the Appalachian State football team departed Johnson City, Tenn. on Sept. 30, 2000, the most shocking thing to happen that night had been Joe Burchette's evolution from third-string quarterback to starter in a 30-13 win at East Tennessee State. As October began a couple of hours later, however, who took the bulk of snaps from center was the farthest thing from any Mountaineer's mind.

As the ASU buses rounded a corner on Route 105 in Foscoe six miles from home around 12:30 in the morning, they came upon a fiery accident that appeared to involve a van and a car. Not long after the buses came to a stop, someone on the lead bus recognized the van as the one transporting the football team's student trainers, managers and videographers.

Shouts of, "That's our van!" were followed quickly by the buses' occupants scrambling to get to the van. The first three people out of the bus were offensive coaches Stacy Searels, Rob Best and Shawn Elliott.

"The car was engulfed in flames," said Best, "and our biggest concern was that it might spread to the van."

According to the North Carolina Highway Patrol, a 1989 Audi station wagon driven by John V. White, III crossed the center line going about 60 miles per hour in a 35 mph zone and hit the 2000 Dodge Ram van head on. The car immediately burst into flames and White is believed to have died instantly.

Head coach Jerry Moore attempted to help the driver of the car, but "there was nothing anyone could do. The whole car was just a mass of flames, and he was pinned in there."

As Searels, Best and Elliott reached the van, they found that two of the 13 passengers were still in the van: assistant athletic trainer Tony Barnett, the driver of the van, and Searels' student assistant coach Jonathan Taylor. Searels ripped open the mangled door to the van and pulled Taylor out. Barnett was trapped by a tangled seat belt and an inflated air bag.

"Tony was pinned in the seat," said Best. "Stacy dragged Jonathan out and Shawn and I both grabbed the driver's seat and yanked it back to try and get Tony free. Stacy came back and helped us get him out."

"Stacy got in there and all but ripped the whole seat out of that van," added Moore. "Fire was everywhere, but he had Tony in his arms and was getting him back toward the buses."

The 13 passengers were now out of the van, but in varying stages of injury, pain and shock, and many were still dangerously close to the burning wreck.

"When we first ran up, there were people just kind of lying on the ground," said sophomore wide receiver Joe Hamilton, "we grabbed a couple of the people and moved them away from the scene."

Jake Stroot, team video coordinator and Appalachian Sports Network sideline reporter, had managed to get out of the van, but could get no further.

"I got out of the van and I couldn't walk," said Stroot. "Neil Cornatzer, Aaron Dobbins and Daniel Jeremiah carried me like 50 yards away."

"About four to six minutes after we got them out," said Best, "the van ignited. (The fire) spread pretty fast."

Best called the scene "unbelievable" as head athletic trainer Andy Massey examined the injured and the players attended to them.

"It was a complete role reversal," said Best. "The players had the kids who were in the van wrapped up in blankets and were applying pressure to stop bleeding wounds. The response and composure a lot of those guys showed was just amazing."

"They worked on me for six years now to try and keep me on the field," said senior wide receiver Joey Gibson, who missed the 1999 season with a knee injury. "It was kind of a flip to see us working on them."

"Everybody who was out there helping, being nothing but 10 or 15 yards away from that van, was at a risk," said Moore. "They ought to hang a medal around everyone's neck."

"That was hero stuff going on," said defensive coordinator John Wiley.

When EMS services arrived minutes later, many of the injured were prepared to be loaded onto ambulances. Barnett and Taylor were the first to be transported out. Taylor was taken to Cannon Memorial Hospital and life-flighted to Johnson City (Tenn.) Memorial Hospital, while Barnett was admitted at Watauga Medical Center.

Of the other 11 passengers, five were taken to WMC and five to CMH. Only the frontseat passenger was spared a hospital visit, due to a seatbelt and air bag. Most of the injuries consisted of broken bones and cuts. In all, only seven stayed the night in the hospital and after 10 days only Taylor remained hospitalized in serious, but stable condition with a severe concussion and some broken bones.

After the injured were taken away, the team buses were allowed through the accident scene to get home at about 2 a.m. A quiet 10 minute ride was followed by a team meeting. Before any of the equipment was unloaded the players and coaches gathered in the Mountaineer Room in Owens Field House and prayed. Some prayed silently, while others verbalized their hopes and wishes.

Rob Best, Stacy Searels and Shawn Elliott were presented with the NCAA Award of Valor, recognizing individuals who, when confronted with a situation involving personal danger, averted or minimized potential disaster by courageous action or noteworthy bravery.

That early morning meeting is hardly the end of the story, however. Coaches still needed to coach and players still needed to play, and those were not the easiest things to do for awhile. Athletics director Roachel Laney spent every day for the next week at the different hospitals, as did Massey and the coaching staff. Someone from the ASU football team visited Johnson City daily to be with Jonathan and his family.

The staff also learned the nature of their relationship with the rest of the Southern Conference coaches and teams. East Tennessee State made extra copies of their game films to replace the ASU copies lost in the accident. Also, the ETSU branch of Fellowship of Christian Athletes met Taylor's mother and held prayer meetings at Johnson City Memorial every night.

On top of all this, the team had to prepare to face sixth-ranked and SoCon rival Furman the next Saturday on regional television and deal with the attention from media.

"I hear about a different hero every day," said Moore after listening to different people's stories. "We're grateful and fortunate that we didn't lose anyone. But one life was lost and our hearts and prayers are with that family, too."

"Everyone had their own heroes," said Stroot. "Everyone had two or three guys helping them out. It's really a big family. You realize how much everyone cares for you."

It was an emotional week, which was capped by an 18-17, come-from-behind win over the Paladins. As the final seconds ticked off the clock, Searels searched for a cell phone on the field. Finding one, he dialed the number for Taylor's room in Johnson City. After getting Jonathan on the phone Searels proclaimed, "We won, Jonathan. We did it. We did it for you."

"I'll never be prouder of a program, no matter what happens on the field," said Moore, long before the Furman contest. "They've learned a lot about priorities and how fragile life and health can be. They've showed me they have qualities that will serve them well a long time after they don't play football games anymore."

For their actions that night, Searels, Best and Elliott were presented with the NCAA Award of Valor. The award is presented only in years when there is a worthy candidate or candidates. It recognizes a current intercollegiate athletics coach or administrator, or a current or former varsity letter winner at an NCAA institution, who, when confronted with a situation involving personal danger, averted or minimized potential disaster by courageous action or noteworthy bravery. The NCAA Award of Valor has only been presented eight previous times since its inception in 1974.

BRIAN STOKES

Many events on the gridiron during Appalachian's run to consecutive NCAA Division national championships in 2005 and '06 were described as heroic. However, ASU benefitted from the presence of a true hero on the field and in the locker room during the championship campaigns.

Brian Stokes came to ASU in 2005 as a 26-year-old freshman. Prior to his arrival in the High Country, Stokes spent five years in the United States Marine Corps, serving deployments to over 10 countries during his military career, including two tours of duty in Iraq.

During Stokes' second tour in Iraq in 2004, the former all-state linebacker and fullback at Williams H.S. in Burlington, N.C. served in over 200 combat missions, including the invasion of Fulljah. A sergeant in the 2nd Battalion, 2nd Marines, Stokes was the commanding officer in a humvee near Lutayfiah in August 2004 when his convoy was the target of two 200-kilogram roadside bombs, which blew the 300-pound doors off Stokes' humvee when detonated within yards of the armored vehicle. Everyone in the vehicle survived, but Stokes suffered shrapnel wounds in his right arm and lost the majority of hearing in his right ear.

Following his release from active duty, Stokes and fellow Marine Wayne Norman enrolled at Appalachian, where head coach Jerry Moore welcomed the heroes with open arms. Both were on the field for the opening kickoff in the 2005 home opener versus Coastal Carolina. Stokes was a regular contributor on special teams and played an important role in the Mountaineers winning their first-ever national title.

Little did Stokes know that just one week prior to the 21-16 victory over Northern Iowa in the 2005 NCAA Division I-AA national championship game, he was awarded a Purple Heart for the injuries he sustained in the roadside bomb attack 16 months earlier. He wasn't aware of the recognition until the Purple Heart arrived in the mail in February 2006.

Due to injury-riddled stints as a member of the football programs at East Carolina and Elon following Stokes' standout high-school career, the former Shrine Bowl participant was granted just two years of eligibility at ASU by the NCAA. He returned for his final gridiron campaign in 2006 and again was a key special-teams performer for Appalachian's second-straight national title march.

Stokes finished his career with eight tackles in 29 games and capped his football-playing days with an appearance in the Texas vs. The Nation All-Star Classic in El Paso, Texas. His story has been told in dozens of newspapers and on television programs across the region and nation, highlighted by an appearance on CBS' Late, Late Show with Craig Ferguson in 2005. He was married in July 2007 and graduated with a degree in criminal justice in 2008. A movie chronicling Stokes' journey is in early production stages.

Purple Heart recipient Brian Stokes was a special-teams standout for the Mountaineers in 2005 and '06.

75TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM

On November 15, 2003, Appalachian State University wrapped up its 75th anniversary of intercollegiate football by announcing its 75th Anniversary Team. The team consists of 25 of the greatest players from the first 75 years of Mountaineer football, with a representative at each position. The team was recognized during halftime of the season finale at Kidd Brewer Stadium versus Western Carolina.

ASU ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

Founded in 1975 by the Appalachian Former Athletes Association, the ASU Athletics Hall of Fame recognizes former coaches and student-athletes for their athletic achievements at Appalachian. To be considered for induction, a nominee must have completed their eligibility at least five years prior to his/her nomination while coaches are eligible for nomination five years after their last season of coaching at ASU.

Through 2007, 56 people representing the football program have been inducted into the Hall of Fame. The entire list of gridiron standouts inducted in the ASU Athletics Hall of Fame is below.

APPALACHIAN ALL-AMERICANS AT A GLANCE

- 71 Appalachian players have earned all-America honors a total of 95 times.
- Head coach Jerry Moore has seen 52 of his pupils collect all-America recognition a total of 73 times during his 19-year tenure at ASU.
- 19 Mountaineers have been two-time all-Americans and three (Dexter Coakley, Corey Lynch and Kevin Richardson) have been three-time all-Americans.

ASU shattered the record for number of selections on The Sports Network's all-America teams with 11 in 2007 (prev. record: 8 — Marshall in 1996). Five more Mountaineers just missed out on TSN all-America recognition as honorable-mention recipients.

MOUNTAINEERS TAME BEARS

APPALACHIAN 52, LENOIR-RHYNE 28

Holding a 17-14 lead at the half, Appalachian exploded out of the tunnel after the intermission, scoring two touchdowns in the third quarter and three more in the fourth.

It was a record-breaking day for the Mountaineers that included 35 first downs, 572 yards on the ground, and 654 total yards.

The Mountaineer defense stunned the Bears by yielding just 59 rushing yards one week after the Bears received national fame by racking up 900 total yards of offense.

Sophomore Emmitt Hamilton rushed for 215 yard and two touchdowns in his greatest performance in a Mountaineer jersey.

The Mountaineers played before a stunned Lenoir-Rhyne crowd of 12,500 fans. The Bears' frustration was evident when a bench-clearing brawl broke out with 16 seconds left in the contest.

SEPTEMBER 9, 1972

APPS BREAK UP PAT ATTEMPT TO SAVE WIN

APPALACHIAN 7, WESTERN KENTUCKY 6

Registering three interceptions, four fumble recoveries, and a blocked punt, Appalachian's stellar defense came up with the winning plays all afternoon in a defensive battle.

Midway through the third quarter, quarterback Steve Loflin hit Boone's homegrown hero Richard Agle for a 78-yard pass and catch for their only touchdown of the day.

Managing a shutout late in the fourth quarter, the Apps gave up a touchdown on Clarence Jackson's one-yard plunge with 1:52 left in the contest to lead by one, at 7-6.

The Hilltoppers decided to go for two and the win, which proved costly when the Mountaineer defense broke up the extra point pass attempt in the endzone to save the victory.

OCTOBER 20, 1973

BRAKEFIELD TAKES DOWN OLD TEAM

APPALACHIAN 28, WOFFORD 21

Backup quarterback Phil Cocchioletti not only replaced injured Roscoe Batts in the third quarter, but took over the Mountaineers' run-oriented "Y Offense" and converted it to a passing attack.

Down 21-7 late in the third quarter, Cocchioletti connected with split end Bob Steelman for a 35-yard touchdown.

On Cocchioletti's second drive, he stunned the Terrier offense with another long ball connecting with Charlie Haugabrook for a 36-yard strike. He finished the drive with a one-yard dive into the endzone.

Late in the fourth quarter, Cocchioletti drove Appalachian deep in Wofford territory before Jim Tucker's six-yard scamper for the go-ahead score. The Mountaineers balanced offense recorded 191 yards in the air and 190 on the ground.

Place kicker Greg Clark was 4-for-4 on extra point tries. Clark went on to establish an NCAA record with 56 consecutive good PAT kicks.

OCTOBER 19, 1974

HARMON TAMES WILD DOGS WITH 47-YARDER

APPALACHIAN 23, EAST CAROLINA 21

In a game that both teams entered undefeated, placekicker Jerry Harmon proved to be the difference, converting a 47-yard field goal with 32 seconds left for the 23-21 victory over East Carolina.

Sophomore Devon Ford worked his way through ECU's touted "Wild Dogs" defense, amassing 231 all-purpose yards.

The Mountaineers carried a 20-0 advantage into the locker room. The Pirates quickly countered in the third quarter behind Ken Strayhorn who rushed for two touchdowns bringing the deficit down to six points, at 20-14.

ECU claimed the lead, at 21-20, midway through the fourth quarter when halfback Jimmy Howe scored on a 65-yard run.

Late in the game, the Mountaineers took advantage of a short Pirate punt that gave them the ball on their own 45. The Apps used a pair of passes to set the stage for Harmon's long field goal.

NOVEMBER 8, 1975

PRICE IS RIGHT IN TRIUMPH AT USC

APPALACHIAN 39, SOUTH CAROLINA 34

Robbie Price put on an offensive show before 47,489 fans on hand at Williams-Brice Stadium, who saw seven scoring drives over 70 yards, four of which went longer than 80 yards in a 39-34 triumph.

After South Carolina scooped up a Price fumble and returned it for the first points of the day, Appalachian got on the board with a 77-yard drive that was capped off by a John Craig score.

The touchdown was especially sweet for Craig who began his career with the Gamecocks two years earlier.

Appalachian led at the half, 24-14, but South Carolina came out quick in the third quarter, and reduced the ASU lead to four when Jeff Grantz scored from two yards out.

Price answered with a 32-yard touchdown pass. However, South Carolina scored late in the third quarter to make it 30-27.

The Gamecocks drove 81 yards take the lead, 34-30. However, the Mountaineers responded with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Price to a diving Donnie Holt.

Mike Staton sealed the win with an interception that led to a Mountaineer field goal to make the final score 39-34.

SEPTEMBER 24, 1979

WISHBONE ALLOWS GROUND GAME TO PREVAIL

APPALACHIAN 35, WESTERN CAROLINA 27

Touted as an aerial display, quarterbacks Mike Pussey (WCU) and Steve Brown (ASU) drew 17,124 fans to Conrad Stadium for what was billed to be a passing thriller. The Mountaineers used an element of surprise by utilizing the rushing game in a 35-27 win.

Pussey connected on 16 passes for 231 yards and a touchdown, while Brown only put the ball in the air 13 times.

Trailing 27-14 at halftime, it was the newly constructed wishbone formation that sparked a rally. The Mountaineers totaled 266 rushing yards in the victory.

The Mountaineer defense allowed just 37 yards through the air and two first downs in the second half.

NOVEMBER 1, 1980

ROOKIE CARRIES APPS TO VICTORY

APPALACHIAN 27, WESTERN CAROLINA 24

With 15,850 fans on hand to witness the tandem of Steve Brown and Rick Beasley play in their final game at Conrad Stadium, it was freshman Alvin Parker who stole the show in a 27-24 come from behind win.

Beasley, who finished his career as the NCAA's fifth all-time leading receiver, went down in the first quarter with an injury. Minus his top target, Brown was limited to 166 yards through the air.

Fullback Pete Carmelo went down in the second half, so it was the 5-11, 185-pound Parker who got the call and became the first 100-yard rusher of the season for the Mountaineers.

Down 24-20 in the fourth quarter ASU drove 92 yards for the victory, which included 47 yards on the ground from Parker.

Parker's former Maury High School teammate Derek Jenkins scored the game-winning touchdown. Jenkins finished the day with five carries for 58 yards while Parker ran 15 times for 106 yards.

SEPTEMBER 3, 1983

MACK BROWN RECORDS WIN NO. 1 AT WAKE
APPALACHIAN 27, WAKE FOREST 25

Making his head coaching debut on Fireworks Night at Groves Stadium, Mack Brown orchestrated a fireworks display of his own in an upset over Wake Forest, 27-25.

Kicker Billy Van Aman notched his first collegiate field goal when he split the uprights from 54 yards out. Van Aman also kicked a 29-yarder late in the third quarter to put ASU up 20-17.

The game looked one-sided on paper as Wake doubled up ASU in total offensive yards (502-247). However, the Appalachian defense recovered five Wake fumbles. Linebacker Joel Carter registered a pair of touchdowns on two interceptions, including a 48-yard scramble to the end zone on his first pick.

Wake completed a 39-yard touchdown and converted a two-point conversion with 1:39 left, but would not get any closer as ASU ran the clock for the two-point win.

4TH-AND-99 NO PROBLEM IN SPARKY'S FIRST W
APPALACHIAN 27, WESTERN CAROLINA 24

Head Coach Sparky Woods received his first win with an amazing 99-yard, 12-play drive resulting in a 15-yard John Settle touchdown reception with five seconds remaining for the 17-16 victory.

Trailing 16-3 late in the fourth quarter, Appalachian's Jimmy Armstrong intercepted a pass and returned it to the WKU 15 yard line. With 4:08 left, Mountaineer quarterback Randy Joyce connected for the first of two fourth quarter touchdown passes.

On the Mountaineers' final drive, Joyce converted a crucial fourth and 10 situation by completing an 18-yard pass to Troy Douglas. He followed with a 17-yard strike to Douglas.

Joyce rallied the Mountaineers by completing passes of 12, 17, and 19 yards before finishing the drive by connecting with Settle on a 15-yard screen pass in the waning moments.

NOVEMBER 29, 1986

APPS FALL IN FIRST PLAYOFF APPEARANCE
NICHOLLS SATE 28, APPALACHIAN 26

Appalachian rallied behind the arm of Todd Payton and the running abilities of John Settle to bring a 25-13 deficit to within two, at 28-26, but the Mountaineers' season came to a close when Bjorn Nittmo's 42-yard field goal sailed wide left with 18 seconds left in the fourth quarter.

Settle rushed for 236 yards on 37 carries, while Payton completed 18-of-35 pass attempts for 294 yards and two touchdowns in the losing effort.

Heading into the I-AA Playoffs, the Mountaineers were seeded No. 6. They held a 13-6 advantage with 11 minutes left in the third quarter, however Nicholls State quarterback Doug Hudson rallied his team and scored on three of their next four possessions to edge the Mountaineers.

SEPTEMBER 9, 1989

MOORE LEADS ASU TO VICTORY AT WFU
APPALACHIAN 15, WAKE FOREST 10

Facing Ricky Proehl and a crowd of 30,200 Wake Forest fans, first-year head coach Jerry Moore and the Mountaineers pulled off a 15-10 victory.

Knotted at 3-3 at the intermission, running back Ritchie Melchor recorded 121 of his 139 yards on the ground in the second half, which included a 67-yard touchdown run.

On the ensuing Wake Forest possession, Proehl took a short pass and danced 28 yards for the touchdown. With the pressure on late in the fourth quarter, freshman Harold Alexander boomed a punt to Proehl, who fielded the ball cleanly, but could not manage to get out of bounds before time expired.

AUGUST 31, 1991

ALEXANDER'S PUNTING KEYS WIN AT MARSHALL
APPALACHIAN 9, MARSHALL 3

It was a tale of two great defenses that led Appalachian to a 9-3 victory in the season opener.

The punting of Harold Alexander kept the Herd at bay throughout the game. Alexander set a Southern Conference record by averaging 55.5 yard on eight punts.

Alexander came up big by booting a 67-yarder and a 51-yarder out of his own endzone against a 10-man rush.

Appalachian's defense started the scoring in the first half when Marshall quarterback Michael Payton was pressured into an intentional grounding call that resulted in a safety.

The Herd managed a field goal after a fumble recovery that gave them the ball deep into ASU territory.

Marshall's offensive woes lied heavily on Payton who fumbled twice near the Appalachian goal line.

Fullback J.K. Reaves plowed two yards through the middle of the Herd defensive line to record the only touchdown of the day.

OCTOBER 19, 1991

APPS NEED THREE OTs TO TOP FURMAN
APPALACHIAN 26, FURMAN 23

It took three overtimes and four Jay Millson field goals, but when it was decided, Appalachian won the first overtime game in Southern Conference history by a count of 26-23.

The first half was marred by mistakes and Furman led 17-9.

Late in the fourth quarter, linebacker Brent David forced a fumble and put the Mountaineers on the Paladin 17. After Nate Abraham ran for the quick score, D.J. Campbell connected with A.J. Ellis for the two-point conversion to tie the score, at 17-17.

Knotted at the end of regulation, Millson and Burr traded field goals in the first two overtimes. In the third extra period, defensive back Steve Wilks blocked a Burr field goal attempt. Millson connected on his fourth field goal of the day to clinch the victory.

OCTOBER 10, 1992

THREE MINUTES, TWO SECONDS AND 20 POINTS
APPALACHIAN 27, JAMES MADISON 21

D.J. Campbell completed three touchdown passes in the final 3:02 of the game, including one to Craig Styron, who caught it on his back with no time remaining on the clock to win the game.

JMU began the scoring with one of the most famous tricks in football lore. Early in the second quarter, the Dukes executed the fumblerooski for a 14-yard touchdown. Bitten by the turnover bug, the Mountaineers fell short of the endzone twice due to turnovers.

With the score 21-7, D.J. Campbell threw the first of three touchdown throws to make it 21-14, with 3:02 to play. Just 32 seconds later, it was tied, at 21-21 on another Campbell TD pass.

With JMU driving deep in Appalachian territory, the Mountaineer defense intercepted a deflected pass, giving Campbell a chance at victory.

After two quick passes to get the ball to midfield, Campbell heaved the ball deep into the endzone, where it found Styron.

MOUNTAINEERS TOP NO. 1 MARSHALL
APPALACHIAN 24, MARSHALL 14

With ominous weather and a matchup against the No. 1 team in the nation, 19,781 rain-soaked fans spurred Appalachian to a 10-point victory and triumphantly tore down the goal posts.

A dominant performance by the Mountaineer defense keyed the win. Dexter Coakley led the Mountaineers with 15 tackles, three for losses, two pass breakups, and a forced fumble.

Johnny Smith, who spent his first three years at fullback, notched seven tackles, a fumble recovery, a sack, and an interception that he returned 70-yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

In only his second start, Scott Satterfield threw for 113 yards and ran for 30 more, including a score.

NOVEMBER 18, 1995

DIVING SNAG SAVES PERFECT SEASON
APPALACHIAN 28, THE CITADEL 24

Scott Satterfield proved his mettle as an All-Southern Conference quarterback by ignoring the pressure on fourth down and slinging the ball to the endzone, where Ron Gilliam's diving grab saved the Mountaineers' perfect regular season and gave them a 28-24 victory.

Unbeaten entering the final game of the regular season, the Mountaineers had plenty of confidence travelling to face the winless Bulldogs. But the Mountaineers needed everything it could muster, including the pass from Satterfield to Gilliam with 1:39 left in the contest for the comeback triumph.

Satterfield who ran for 80 yards and passed for 176, had no problem sending the ball to Gilliam who was a converted defensive back with only four catches on the season.

OCTOBER 19, 1996

BACKUP QB LEADS APPS OVER EAGLES
APPALACHIAN 35, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 28

Backup signal-caller Bake Baker was called upon in the fourth quarter at Georgia Southern to create what head coach Jerry Moore dubbed a "spark." A spark is what he got.

Baker took over and led the Mountaineers on a 21-point rally with just over 10 minutes remaining in the contest.

The Mountaineer offense was desperate for production. The defense was not much better, with five players sidelined with injuries.

In his 10-plus minutes of action Baker converted three scoring drives, including the game-winner, a 68-yard pass and catch to Otis Smith with 3:13 remaining in the game.

Baker ended the game 8-of-10 passing, for 159 yards and two touchdowns. Prior to his showing in Statesboro, he had completed just three passes in his career.

OCTOBER 3, 1998

APPS TOP DEACS IN OT FOR MOORE'S 100TH WIN APPALACHIAN 30, WAKE FOREST 27 (OT)

Daniel Jeremiah's one-yard touchdown run in overtime gave Appalachian head coach Jerry Moore his 100th career victory, a 30-27 triumph over Wake Forest in Winston-Salem.

Moore's 100th win was his fourth over Wake in 10 seasons at the helm of the Mountaineers.

Appalachian jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter thanks to a 27-yard field goal by Stuart Jones and a 47-yard touchdown run by Terrence McCall. The Demon Deacons scored 17 of the game's next 20 points to take a 17-13 advantage into the fourth quarter.

After Jones' third field goal of the game cut the ASU deficit to 17-16 early in the final period, Jeremiah hooked up with Joey Gibson for a 57-yard touchdown and a two-point conversion made it 24-17 ASU with 5:28 to go. However, Wake Forest responded with a 13-play, 74-yard drive, capped by a seven-yard touchdown pass from Brian Kuklick to Jammie Deese that tied the contest with only 53 seconds left to play.

In overtime, Appalachian held the Deacs to a field goal on the opening possession before clinching the win on Jeremiah's touchdown dive a series later.

APPS NEARLY PULL OFF UPSET AT AUBURN
AUBURN 22, APPALACHIAN 15

For nearly three quarters, it seemed as though Appalachian would pull off perhaps the biggest win ever by a I-AA school over a I-A opponent. But a 33-yard touchdown pass with just 38 seconds left to play gave perennial-power Auburn a narrow 22-15 win over the Mountaineers before 78,123 at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

After Auburn took a 7-0 lead less than seven minutes in, Appalachian responded with 15-straight points to take an eight-point advantage deep into the third quarter. The Tigers evened the score at 15-15 late in the third period and marched 77 yards in just 1:04 to score the winning touchdown in the final minute.

ASU out-gained Auburn 323-288 for the game and held AU to just 54 yard of offense in the first half.

OCTOBER 16, 1999

ASU HOLDS ON FOR WIN OVER NO. 1 EAGLES
APPALACHIAN 17, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 16

Appalachian forced four turnovers, including Corey Hall's second interception as time expired, to claim a 17-16 win over No. 1 Georgia Southern before 19,981 at Kidd Brewer Stadium. The triumph was ASU's second ever over a top-ranked team, almost five years to the day after it knocked off No. 1 Marshall at KBS.

Without the benefit of an offensive touchdown, the Mountaineers ran out to a 17-0 lead. Weslan Hunter returned a fumble 43 yards for a score and Luke Manuel fell on another Eagle cough-up and the Apps took the seemingly comfortable 17-point lead with less than five minutes to play in the third quarter.

However, the Eagles came back with a vengeance, scoring 16 points over a 12-minute span. Trailing by just a point, got the ball back with under 30 seconds to play, but Hall sealed the victory with his pick off at the ASU 38 yard line.

AUGUST 31, 2000

WAKE GOES DOWN AGAIN
APPALACHIAN 20, WAKE FOREST 16

For the third time in four meetings, Appalachian knocked off the ACC's Wake Forest, this time scoring a 20-16 triumph before 26,853 fans at Groves Stadium. The win evened ASU head coach Jerry Moore's record versus the Demon Deacons at 5-5-1.

The Mountaineers dominated the first half, outgaining the Deacs 207-49, but trailed 10-7 at the break, thanks to an 88-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Wake's John Stone. The score remained 10-7 heading into the final period and things looked bleak for the Apps, who lost starting quarterback Daniel Jeremiah to a knee injury on the first play of the second half.

However, backup signal-caller David Reaves led Appalachian on an eight-play, 66-yard drive, which he capped with a nine-yard touchdown pass to Rashad Slade on the first play of the fourth quarter to give ASU a 14-10 lead. Despite committing two turnovers in the final period, Appalachian forced Wake into a pair of turnovers of its own, including a fumble on its own 10 yard line with just over three minutes to go. Three plays later, Karim Razzak found the end zone from 10 yards out to seal the triumph.

APPS AVERAGE LOSS IN PLAYOFF WIN AT TROY
APPALACHIAN 33, TROY STATE 30

After being handed a 34-28 setback in Boone by Troy State during the regular season, Appalachian returned the favor on a much bigger stage, as it downed the fourth-seeded Trojans, 33-30, in the opening round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

Appalachian outgained Troy State, 200-21, in the first half en route to a 19-9 lead at the break. ASU extended its lead to 26-9 in the third quarter and withstood three fourth-quarter Troy touchdowns to hold on for the win.

Joe Burchette completed 27-of-41 passes for 237 yards and two touchdowns in the win. In addition to scoring passes to Troy Albea and Jose White, Burchette also ran 11 yards for a score.

The win was just the second road playoff victory ever for the Mountaineers.

OCTOBER 9, 2004

WILLIAMS REWRITES RECORDS IN COMEBACK WIN
APPALACHIAN 30, FURMAN 29

Junior quarterback Richie Williams rewrote the NCAA record book with his performance in Appalachian's 30-29 triumph over No. 2 Furman at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

Williams set NCAA all-divisions records by completing 28-straight passes at one point and 40-of-45 overall in the win.

Despite Williams' efforts, the Mountaineers found themselves trailing the Paladins by six points after Furman quarterback Ingle Martin connected with running back Cedrick Gipson on a 52-yard catch and run with 2:03 to go in the ball game.

However, Williams saved his best for last, as he accounted for 78 yards on ASU's final drive by completing 4-of-4 passes for 61 yards and running for 17 more, including a 13-yard keeper for the winning touchdown with 35 seconds remaining.

In all, Williams threw for 413 yards and two touchdowns and tacked on 27 more yards on the ground to spark the victory, just one week removed from missing the Apps' 41-34 win over Texas State with a sprained knee.

DECEMBER 10, 2005

ELDER, HUNTER LEAD APPS TO FIRST TITLE GAME
APPALACHIAN 29, FURMAN 23

Filling in for an injured Richie Williams, backup quarterback Trey Elder threw a touchdown pass on his first play and ran for the game-winning score with 2:17 remaining in Appalachian's 29-23 victory over Furman in the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals.

Elder completed 12-of-17 passes for 165 yards and no interceptions and ran 12 times for 69 yards in relief of Williams, who left the contest midway through the first quarter with a left ankle injury.

On his first play, Elder connected with Dexter Jackson for a 45-yard touchdown pass that gave the Mountaineers a 14-0 lead.

However, Furman scored 23 of the next 30 points to take a 23-21 lead into halftime.

The Paladins' slim advantage stood up until Elder led the Apps on an 11-play, 67-yard drive, culminating with his one-yard touchdown plunge with just over two minutes to go.

Led by quarterback Ingle Martin, the Paladins drove inside the ASU 40 with under a minute to play. But, on first-and-10 at the ASU 36, Mountaineer defensive end Jason Hunter hit Martin from behind, forcing the ball loose, which defensive tackle Omarr Byrom picked up and returned all the way to the Furman one yard line to stamp Appalachian's ticket to its first-ever national championship game.

NOVEMBER 24, 2007

ROMAN STRIPS JAMES MADISON OF UPSET BID
APPALACHIAN 28, JAMES MADISON 27

Appalachian's magical season looked like it was going to end three games short of the ultimate goal, but the Mountaineer defense stepped up at the game's most critical moments to give the Apps a stunning 28-27 win over visiting James Madison in the opening round of the 2007 NCAA Division I championship.

Twelfth-ranked JMU, which used a powerful running game to control the ball for over 40 minutes, led 27-22 late in the fourth quarter and faced third-and-one at its own 32 yard line, needing only one first down to end ASU's run at a third-straight national title. However, the Black and Gold defense stepped up to stop the Dukes for no gain on two-straight plays and get the ball back deep in Madison territory.

Two plays after Devon Moore made a diving catch on fourth-and-three from the JMU 25 yard line, Armanti Edwards scored his third touchdown of the day from five yards out to give Appalachian a one-point lead with just 1:10 remaining on the clock.

But it was far from over, as JMU needed just four plays to drive 62 yards, setting itself up for an apparent chip-shot field goal to win the game. However, JMU head coach Mickey Matthews elected to run one more play and ASU linebacker Jacque Roman made him pay for the fateful decision, stripping freshman running back Jamal Sullivan of the ball. The loose pigskin was smothered by ASU's Pierre Banks just feet from the ASU sideline, triggering a wild celebration that would last straight through to the Mountaineers' 49-21 rout over Delaware in the national championship game three weeks later.

Pierre Banks celebrates after recovering James Madison's fumble with less than a minute to play in ASU's 28-27 opening-round playoff victory last November.

The Mountaineers were trailing 9-7 in the fourth quarter after three Furman field goals and an interception return for a touchdown by the home side. With 5:39 left, Joey Hoover's 24-yard TD catch from Joe Burchette gave Appalachian its first lead of the game, at 14-9.

Furman took the ensuing possession and marched 73 yards on 13 plays, converting a first down on third-and-18 and then retook the lead on third-and-goal from the Appalachian 12 with 0:07 remaining when Billy Napier found Bear Rinehart for the go-ahead touchdown. Furman led 15-14.

Furman elected to go for two points on the point-after. Napier's pass on the two-point attempt was intercepted by Josh Jeffries at the ASU 4. Jeffries darted toward the left sideline before lateraling the ball to Derrick Black at the ASU 16.

With Jeffries and Nygel Rogers both running downfield to block, Black avoided two would-be tacklers on his way to score two points and give Appalachian the lead in remarkable fashion, 16-15.

Rogers tackled Black in a celebratory hug in the end zone. The Mountaineers cleared the sideline to join the celebration.

With much fanfare, Jeffries recovered Furman's on-side kick attempt to seal the Miracle on the Mountain.

APPALACHIAN 21, NORTHERN IOWA 16

Without starting quarterback Richie Williams, who was out with a severe ankle injury in the first half, Appalachian fell behind, 16-7.

With Williams back at the helm, the Mountaineers cut the deficit to 16-14 on Kevin Richardson's one-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.

With under 10 minutes left to play, Northern Iowa quarterback Eric Sanders dropped back to pass from his own 25 yard line.

Appalachian defensive end Marques Murrell came off the left edge to strip the ball from Sanders.

Murrell's counterpart on the defensive line, Jason Hunter, scooped up the loose ball at the UNI 15.

Hunter galloped untouched into the end zone to give Appalachian a 21-16 lead with 9:14 left to play, setting off a wild celebration on the ASU sideline and among the 12,000-plus Mountaineer fans in the stands.

Murrell and Hunter combined for two more sacks down the stretch to squelch the Panthers' final scoring opportunities.

Richardson's first-down run in the waning minutes sealed Appalachian's first-ever national championship.

Jason Hunter's third defensive touchdown of the season was the difference in Appalachian's 21-16 victory over Northern Iowa for the 2005 NCAA Division I-AA national championship.

"It just feels so good that I could do something to leave a legacy like that because it's part of history. I'm glad I'll be a part of that."

TOUCHDOWN NO. 1

45 YARDS • 1:15 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER
APPALACHIAN 7, UMASS 7

Appalachian struggled to move the ball in each of its first two possessions, but after a sack to start its third series, ASU ripped off gains of 19 and 13 yards to move into UMass territory for the first time all evening. On first-and-10 from the UMass 45, Richardson took a handoff from Edwards, burst through a gaping hole on the left side of the line and easily outran the Minuteman secondary to the corner of the end zone to knot the game at 7-7. The gallop was the second-longest TD run in ASU postseason history (Daniel Wilcox — 65 yds. vs. Florida A&M — 1999).

TOUCHDOWN NO. 2

6 YARDS • :49 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER
APPALACHIAN 14, UMASS 7

Both teams moved the ball with relative ease in the first 10 minutes of the second quarter, but all they had to show for it were swapped punts and an UMass interception deep in ASU territory. Appalachian got the ball for only the second time in the second period when it fielded a punt at its own 22 yard line with just over five minutes left to play in the opening half. On the first play of the series, Edwards connected with his favorite target, William Mayfield, for a 35-yard gain. From there, the Mountaineer trio of Richardson, Edwards and Devon Moore banged out the final 43 yards of the drive on the ground, capped by Richardson's six-yard scoring run off right tackle with 49 seconds to go before halftime. The Apps' 11-play, 78-yard drive took 4:19 off the clock and assured them of taking a seven-point lead into the locker room.

TOUCHDOWN NO. 3

4 YARDS • 13:22 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER
APPALACHIAN 21, UMASS 14

After UMass knotted the contest at 14-14 with an 11-play, 81-yard scoring drive, ASU got the ball back on its own 29 with 4:12 left to play in the third quarter looking to put together a lengthy scoring drive of its own. Thanks in large part to Richardson, who amassed 48 of the ASU's 71 yards on the possession, the Apps did just that, marching 71 yards in 13 plays. Richardson punctuated the scoring drive by powering four yards through the heart of the line and into the end zone for his 29th touchdown of the season, tying the NCAA Division I FCS record set by Colgate's Jamaal Branch in 16 games in 2003. More importantly, Richardson's third scoring run of the evening gave the Mountaineers a seven-point lead with 13:22 remaining in the ballgame.

TOUCHDOWN NO. 4

2 YARDS • 1:51 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER
APPALACHIAN 28, UMASS 17

When UMass cut the Mountaineers' lead to 21-17 on a 42-yard Chris Koeplin field goal with 8:46 to go, Appalachian head coach Jerry Moore told quarterbacks coach Scott Satterfield, "We've got to run eight minutes off that clock." Satterfield replied, "We've got to score." Moore agreed. "I didn't say don't score. But we need to run some time off the clock." Richardson, who ran 11 times for 48 of ASU's 80 yards on the drive, made sure the Apps accomplished both goals. In all, thanks to Richardson's running and a key third-down completion from Edwards to fellow freshman Josh Johnson, Appalachian ran 6:46 off the clock on the victory-sealing drive, which culminated with Richardson's fourth touchdown of the evening. The two-yard drive was also Richardson's 30th TD of the season, setting a new NCAA Division I FCS single-season record. Following Richardson's score, UMass' last-ditch effort was thwarted when Corey Lynch picked off a Liam Coen pass with 42 seconds to play.

TOUCHDOWN NO. 1

19-YARD RECEPTION • 10:47 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER
APPALACHIAN 7, DELAWARE 0

Unlike its first two trips to Chattanooga for the national championship game, Appalachian wasted no time in getting on the board in the 2007 title tilt, as it forced Delaware to punt after a three-and-out on the opening possession then promptly marched 58 yards in just six plays to take a 7-0 lead. Buoyed by spectacular downfield blocking from his offensive lineman, Richardson took a screen pass from Armanti Edwards and needed to beat just one UD defender at the goal line.

10:22 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER
APPALACHIAN 21, DELAWARE 0

Richardson was on the verge of scoring his second touchdown of the day from two yards out, but fumbled just short of the goal line. A scrum for the ball ensued and ASU offensive lineman/tight end Daniel Kilgore emerged with the ball to give the Mountaineers their third touchdown of the game, despite the fact that Richardson was still stuck on one.

TOUCHDOWN NO. 2

4-YARD RECEPTION • 4:56 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER
APPALACHIAN 35, DELAWARE 7

With a 21-point lead early in the third quarter, Appalachian methodically marched down the field and capped a 14-play, 67-yard drive with an eight-yard touchdown pass from Edwards to Richardson. Richardson accounted for 29 of the drive's 67 yards, including the eight-yard touchdown play in which he snuck out of the backfield and down the left sideline completely unnoticed by the Blue Hen defense for what might have been the easiest of his 74 career scores.

TOUCHDOWN NO. 3

6-YARD RUSH • 6:02 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER
APPALACHIAN 42, DELAWARE 14

Richardson's eighth touchdown in three national championship games came on a six-yard run midway through the fourth quarter. Richardson was the workhorse once again on the scoring drive, as he picked up 51 yards on the possession and went over the 100-yard rushing plateau for the 19th time in his illustrious career. Following the 10-play, 87-yard scoring drive, Richardson would spend the rest of the evening on the bench, watching from the sideline as fellow senior Trey Elder capped the rout with a 53-yard touchdown scamper that brought the Black and Gold contingent pouring out of the stands and onto the sidelines with more than three minutes still to play. In his last collegiate game, Richardson came up huge once again on FCS football's biggest stage, finishing with 145 total yards (118 rushing, 27 receiving) and three of ASU's nine touchdowns.

"It means a lot because this is what you play for, to win championships. To do it three times is a heck of a way to go out."

WELCOME TO THE ROCK!

ELEVATION: 3,333 FT.
APPALACHIAN'S RECORD AT THE ROCK, 2003-07:
35-1

KIDD BREWER STADIUM

Despite the standard salutation afforded to all visitors to Kidd Brewer Stadium, The Rock has offered anything but a warm welcome to opponents since it opened as Conrad Stadium on Sept. 15, 1962.

One of the most picturesque settings in all of college football, Kidd Brewer Stadium also stakes claim to being one of the toughest venues in the nation for a visiting team to leave with a victory.

Appalachian boasts a 189-59-5 record all-time at Kidd Brewer Stadium, including wins in 35 of its last 36 home games. Home streak highlights include:

In addition to Mountaineer victories, Appalachian faithful enjoy one of the nation's premier gameday atmospheres at Kidd Brewer Stadium. Since the beginning of the 2005 season, ASU boasts an average regular-season home attendance of 23,324, a mark which comes in at more than 140 percent of KBS's 16,650-seat capacity.

ASU led the nation in attendance in 2007 at 24,219 fans per game and sold out five of its six home games in advance of gameday. A record 28,802 fans poured through the gates for the Mountaineers'07 home opener versus Lenoir-Rhyne.

A multi-purpose facility that is also home to ASU's field hockey and men's and women's track and field programs, Kidd Brewer Stadium also boasts one of college football's finest settings for a sporting venue, with ASU's beautiful, modern campus and the natural beauty of the High Country serving as a backdrop.

Officially opened on September 15, 1962 as Conrad Stadium, in honor of former University trustee and R.J. Reynolds executive William J. Conrad, the stadium was originally constructed with 10,000 permanent seats.

Conrad Stadium was renamed on Sept. 3, 1988 in honor of Kidd Brewer, one of the most successful head coaches in Appalachian football history and a colorful part of North Carolina history. Brewer, a Winston-Salem, N.C., native who served as head football coach of the Mountaineers from 1935-38, compiled a 30-5-3 overall mark in his four seasons at the helm of the Apps. An All-American at Duke, Brewer's 1937 squad was unbeaten and unscored upon in the regular season.

After leaving Appalachian, Brewer started a sales career, but shortly thereafter reported for active duty in World War II. He served as a Naval lieutenant in the Pacific. After the war, Brewer was secretary to U.S. Sen. Josiah W. Bailey (D-N.C.). Upon Bailey's death in office Brewer served his replacement, Sen. William B. Umstead, as administrative assistant.

Brewer returned to North Carolina and ran for lieutenant governor in 1956. Between campaigns for governor (1964) and state court of appeals (1968), he made a name for himself as a developer, insurance salesman and philanthropist.

The stadium has undergone many face lifts since its construction, but still stands as a beacon to the Mountaineer faithful. The stadium stands 3,280 feet above sea level with the track measured at 3,333 feet for NCAA qualifications.

Seating capacity was expanded from its original 10,000 to 18,000 following the 1978 season. Completion of an extensive renovation and restoration project on the original 10,000 seats in 1995 readjusted the seating capacity to 16,650. A state-of-the-art "AppVision" videoboard was added in 1999 and enlarged prior to the 2001 campaign, while Appalachian was one of the initial collegiate programs in the country to install FieldTurf at its football venue in 2003.

The Rock is currently in the midst of its most extensive facelift to date. Following the 2006 season, the KBS press box was removed to make way for a new 100,000-square-foot stadium complex. The complex will house state-of-the-art strength and conditioning and athletic training facilities to benefit all 20 of Appalachian's varsity sports, as well as extensive locker rooms, academic, office and meeting space for ASU student-athletes, coaches and administrators and is set to open in 2009.

However, the most visible element of the crown jewel of ASU athletics' $50 million facilities enhancement campaign is the addition of more than 5,000 new seats, which will bring capacity to approximately 22,000 by 2009. In 2008, the stadium's east side will feature an upper deck with 4,400 new seats. By 2009, premium seating on the stadium's west side, in the way of 18 luxury suites, 500 club seats and spacious Yosef Club and Chancellor's Box areas will be completed as part of the new stadium complex building.
